GROWING THROUGH CHANGE

We often talk about change, particularly about how healthcare is constantly changing and challenging us to think and act differently. Not two decades ago the concept of Peer Supports was introduced — calling on us to employ individuals with lived experience to support others in recovery. At the time it seemed such a foreign concept to think anyone but degreed and licensed professionals could help others with mental health and substance use needs. Fast forward to today, and it's hard to imagine services at MCN without Peers and Recovery Coaches. These valued employees are the glue that holds teams together, keeping us grounded and focused on what's most important — the people we serve. Without change we would not have known, and without change we would not have grown.

— Tammy J. Warner, MCN Executive Director

Our Vision:

To be a valued partner in building a community that is committed to wellness and embraces the full participation of every citizen.

2019 Community Excellence Award Winner

Chris Williams

Recovery Coach at Randy's House

Congratulations to Chris Williams, Recovery Coach at Randy's House in Greenville. Chris is an advocate for individuals recovering from substance use disorders. He takes time to learn about each person and customizes his approaches to best meet their recovery needs. Chris always goes the extra mile to celebrate successes and ensure people feel supported.

Thank you Chris for all you do!
